

Michelle Yoffee – Michelle is currently the Managing Editor of the Seminole Chronicle, the Content Editor of Orlando MomsLikeMe magazine and the Adviser to the Central Florida Future, UCF's newspaper. These publications, along with several smaller products, are part of the Orlando operation of Gannett Community Publishing.

Michelle's background includes 20 years in journalism, product development, advertising and public relations. Prior to moving to Florida in 2004, she worked for Post-Newsweek Media, Tribune Corporation and several smaller, independent publications.

She currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Greater Oviedo-Winter Springs Chamber of Commerce where she is chair of its newly formed Marketing Committee. Additionally, she is an active volunteer with Oviedo Pop Warner.

Prior to 1998, while in Pennsylvania, Michelle was on the Board of Directors for the Pennsylvania Institute on Public Policy, the Pennsylvania Coalition on Food and Nutrition and Christian Churches United and served as a volunteer for the Second Harvest Food Bank and on a local church's education committee.

From 1998-2004, she worked as a volunteer for the Mid-Maryland Olympic Weightlifting Center and the Frederick County Public School system. She was the marketing coordinator for the Inaugural Frederick City Marathon.

Michelle's top priority are her 2 children, 15 & 13 and building relationships and working partnerships in the community.