

Dave Krepcho Background

---

July 2004 - Present:

President/CEO

Second Harvest Food Bank of Central Florida

Professional Commitments:

Local:

- UCF School of Public Administration Advisory Board, Nonprofit Management
- Member, Prosperity Campaign Advisory Board for Central Florida
- Orlando Sentinel's "2009 Central Floridian of the Year"

State:

- Board Member, Florida Association of Food Banks
- Co-Chair of Dept. of Children & Families State-wide Board for Public Benefits

National:

- Chair, Feeding America's National Disaster Relief Task Force

International:

- Board Member of The Social Enterprise Fund

Professional History:

2000 - 2004:

- Feeding America, Chicago – The Nation's Largest Hunger Relief Organization
- VP Business Development – responsible for all product donations and relationships with the national food industry. (i.e. Kraft, General Mills, Kellogg's, WalMart, etc.)
- Led a team that acquired 450 million pounds of donated food annually.
- Also responsible for developing national programs designed to obtain more food for the 205 member food banks across the United States.

1992 - 2000:

- 8 years as Executive Director of the Miami Food Bank
- Chair of the Eastern U.S. Region, Feeding America
- National Board Member, Feeding America

1975 - 1991:

Career in the Advertising Agency business: Toronto, Miami

Education:

B.A. Columbus College of Art & Design, Columbus, Ohio

Personal:

- Married 33 years, two children
- Special interest: Reading, golf, biking