

Lynn Tipton
Executive Director
Florida City and County Management Association

Lynn Tipton is executive director of the Florida City and County Management Association (FCCMA). She is a 20-year employee of the Florida League of Cities and was selected as the FCCMA's executive director in 1996 as one of her FLC responsibilities. The FCCMA has had its management with the FLC since 1978. The FCCMA is the professional association for local government managers, their management teams and those desiring to work in Florida's local governments in various management positions. The FCCMA is an affiliate of the International City/County Management Association (ICMA). The web site is www.fccma.org

Lynn has her graduate and under-graduate degrees in public administration and has worked in federal and municipal government since 1982. In her FLC role as director of membership development she develops, conducts and coordinates training and outreach to all of Florida's municipal governments. She is a frequent presenter for the Florida League of Cities, Florida Association of Counties, Florida Association of City Clerks and in programs offered through the Florida Institute of Government. She has served as an adjunct professor of public administration at FSU. She has resided in Tallahassee since 1988.