

BIO:

Dr. Anna-Marie Cote

Deputy Superintendent for Instructional Excellence and Equity

Seminole County Public Schools

Dr. Anna-Marie Cote currently serves as Seminole County Public Schools Deputy Superintendent for Instructional Excellence and Equity.

Prior to assuming her role as Deputy Superintendent, Dr. Cote served as a Seminole County teacher, curriculum specialist and district administrator during her 23 years in Seminole County.

In addition to working in Seminole County, Dr. Cote taught both elementary and middle school for ten years in Massachusetts.

Dr. Cote earned her Doctoral and Specialists Educational Leadership degrees from the University of Florida, her Master's Degree in Reading from Bridgewater State College, and her Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education from Framingham State College.

She resides in Lake Mary with her husband, Norman. They are the proud parents of three daughters, all SCPS graduates, and now have two grandsons who are the light of their lives.