

Gerald L Berry

Experience

GL Berry & Associates, LLC, Winter Springs, FL

President/CEO

July 2012-Present

Responsible for the overall direction of the company, including promoting the privatization of airport security to the nation's airports. Attend conferences related to airport security. Work diligently with numerous Federal Security Directors, TSA headquarters and Congressional leaders.

Covenant Aviation Security, Casselberry, FL

President

October 2002 – June 2012

Responsible for the overall direction of the company. Developed a strategic plan for enhancing CAS' status with San Francisco International, Tupelo and Sioux Falls airports while positioning CAS for growth. Guest speaker at numerous ACI-NA and AAAE conferences regarding TSA's Privatization Program and the planned Screener Partnership Program. Represented Covenant before the House Sub-Committee on Aviation.

Transportation Security Administration

Assistant Operations for Airport Rollout

May 2002 – October 2002

Assisted with the transition of screeners at numerous airports to a federal workforce, also worked as TSA's White House liaison representative.

StarMedia, Inc., Orlando, FL

President

January 1999 – May 2002

President of StarMedia, Inc., a computer-based training company of 120 personnel located in Orlando, Florida. Numerous training programs for customers include FAA, Honeywell, Pratt & Whitney, Boeing, Delta, CAE, FlightSafety, SimuFlite, and US Department of Defense. Average revenue of $10 million per year.

O.C., Inc Multimedia Division, Orlando, FL

Chief Operating Officer

January 1994 – January 1999

Responsible for all operations in a company with over 400 personnel within six divisions. Built the Multimedia Division in Orlando from 4 employees to 110 employees in a two-year period. The Multimedia Division is responsible for numerous projects including computer-based training development for the F/A-18, F-14, Combat Visual Identification System and Electronic Warfare Threat. Program Manager for Night Vision Goggle Compatibility conversion for the C-130 aircraft. Responsible for the budgeting, scheduling, and management of $18 million in assets for developmental efforts for USN and USMC aviation training programs. Managed and supervised six project managers and was responsible for management of all multimedia production equipment and software, as well as a 15,000 square-foot facility used for the upkeep, maintenance, and new development of aviation training programs.

Military Service

United States Marine Corps

July 1964 – April 1993

Achieved rank of Colonel
1969-70, Vietnam Tour
1975, Flew Ambassador Graham Martin out of Saigon
3 Distinguished Flying Crosses

Flight Instructor

Held various jobs of increasing responsibility, including Flight Instructor, Assistant Director of training, and Simulator Instructor. Led study to determine the proper trade-off between simulation hops and actual flights.

Recruiting

District Office Procurement Officer

Responsible for Officer Recruiting in the Marine Corps 12th District

Marine Aircraft Group 36 (01/1991 - 01/1993)

Okinawa, Japan

Commanding Officer

9th MEB (07/1989 - 01/1991)

Assistant Chief of Staff G-3

Naval War College (07/1988 - 07/1989)

Top level school

Stephen B. Luce Award recipient

The Basic School (01/1987 - 07/1988)

Executive Officer

VMO-1 (01/1983 - 01/1987)

Commanding Officer / Executive Officer

Education

Des Moines Technical High School

Des Moines, IA

Salve Regina

Newport, RI

Master of Arts, International Relations

Naval War College

Newport, RI

Master of Science, Strategic Studies

Stephen B. Luce Award recipient

Simpson College

Indianola, IA

Bachelor of Arts, History

Advanced Supervisory Leadership Program, Rollins College, Winter Park, FL.

Leadership, Teambuilding, Culture Change Training, Senn-Delaney Leadership